PART B – JURISDICTIONAL REQUIREMENTS

For Those in Australia

This addendum applies to those located in Australia.

1. Transfer Overseas

The types of entities to whom we may disclose your personal data as described in Section 4 (Disclosure of Personal Data to Recipients and Joint Use of Personal Data) of the Policy may be located in countries other than Australia, such as Japan.

2. Complaints

We encourage you to contact us first if you have any questions or complaints about the Policy, your rights or any other matter relating to the way we handle your personal data. We will take any privacy complaint seriously and any complaint will be assessed with the aim of resolving any issue in a timely and efficient manner. We request that you co-operate with us during this process and provide us with any relevant information that we may need.

If you believe that any of your rights have been infringed by us or you have any concerns about our handling of your personal data, you also have the right to make a complaint to the Australian data protection authority, which is the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner. You can lodge a complaint by following the process set out at <https://www.oaic.gov.au/privacy/privacy-complaints/lodge-a-privacy-complaint-with-us>.
